Old Glory! say, who, by the ships and the crew,

And leap out full length, as we're wanting you to ?-Who gave you that name, with the ring of the same, And the honor and fame so becoming to you? Your stripes stroked in ripples of white and of red, With your stars at their glittering best overhead— By day or by night their delightfulest light Who gave you the name of Old Glory-say, who-

Old Glory, speak out! We are asking about How you happened to "favor" a name, so to say, That sounds so familiar and careless and gay, As we cheer it, and shout in our wild, breezy way-We-the crowd, every man of us, calling you that-We, Tom, Dick and Harry, each swinging his hat And hurrahing "Old Glory!" like you were our kin, When—Lord!—we all known we're as common as sin! And yet it just seems like you humor us all And waft us your thanks, as we hall you and fall Into line, with you over us, waving us on Where our glorified, sanctified betters have gone And this is the reason we're wanting to know (And we're wanting it so! Where our own fathers went we are willing to go) Who gave you the name of Old Glory—O-ho!—

And fluttered an audible answer at last.

The old benner lifted, and, faltering, then

There's a shout in the throat and a blur in the eye.

BREED THEATRE

Henry B. Walthall, America's Leading Actor in "Little Shoes", Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle in "Reckless Romeo" and the Universal Weekly Form a Bill of Unusual Strength for Friday and Saturday.

On Friday and Saturday the Breed will present one of the biggest bills of feature photoplays ever presented in this city, the feature of which is Henry B. Walthall, America's leading actor, in Little Shoes, a drama of heart in six parts and written by Eleanor M. Ingram. Mr. Walthall has played the melody of love on the heart strings in this tense photodrama. You will be endeared to "Little Shoes" when you see it. In addition to this wonderful feature the Breed will present Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle and Al St. John in "A Reckless Romeo". This picture is overflowing with comedy situations, intermingled with some in-imitable Arbuckle slap-stick fistic encounters, pienty of action, a smattering of heart, lots of suepense and that ever present Arbuckle ultimate justification.

The Universal Weekly will complete the bill for Friday and Saturday.
